

Yoga Flow This class incorporates asana from the beginner and intermediate series with a greater focus on harmonizing the natural breath with the movement. The class begins with yogic breathing and meditation. The student is then led through an asana flow. The class will end with deep therapeutic relaxation. Strength, flexibility, ease of coordinating breath with movement are required for participation in this class.